

3rd annual minneapolis trans* equity summit

Thursday, Sept. 22, 2016, 1-5 p.m. (registration begins at noon)
Minneapolis Institute of Art, 2400 Third Ave. S., Minneapolis

Reception following the Summit and 6:30 p.m. performance by violinist and mezzo-soprano vocalist Tona Brown.

All events are free and open to the public, but registration for the evening performance by Tona Brown is required due to limited space.

trans*
equity summit

about the summit

The theme for this year's Summit is employment, with sessions covering topics of interest to employers, employees, and community members interested in learning about and furthering transgender equity. All are encouraged to attend.

The Summit will include a keynote address by Crispin Torres, a community educator for Lambda Legal Midwest, an opening panel, breakout sessions, and an opportunity to share back. Breakout session topics include:

- Being a Trans-Inclusive Employer
- Coming out in the Workplace as Transgender - A Practical Guide for both employees and employers
- Looking at work and other policies through a Transgender Lens
- What are my Rights at Work?
- How to be an Ally in the Workplace
- Preparing our Transgender Youth for Employment

Register and get more information at www.minneapolismn.gov/TransEquity

In conjunction with the Minneapolis Trans* Equity Summit, Twin Cities Pride, Lambda Legal, Intermedia Arts and RARE Productions will host the Trans* Job Fair the following day, featuring some of the Twin Cities top employers.

Trans* Job Fair
10 a.m. - 3 p.m. Friday, Sept. 23, 2016
Intermedia Arts, 2822 Lyndale Ave. S., Minneapolis www.regonline.com/transequitysummitjobfair

Sponsors

