Instructions

Address means the complete mailing address, including the zip code, at which the individual wishes to receive mail from the Metropolitan Governmental Unit. A person may use either a business address or home address.

Occupation means a person's usual trade, profession, employment, or other similar endeavor, and includes categories for which there is no direct financial compensation, such as homemaker.

Name of Employer is applicable only to those who have an employer. Individuals who are not employed or who are self-employed should indicate that fact in the employer name space.

Address of business – Complete address, including city, state, and zip code:

- for an employed person, the name of the employer and the address from which the employee conducts the employer's business
- for a self-employed person the address from which the person conducts business
- for a homemaker, retiree, farmer, or person not employed, the individual's home address.

Termination Statements are required only if there are changes to be reported from the previously filed statement. If there are changes to report, this statement is due after the term ends and before the following April 15th.

Associated business means an association, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, or other organized legal entity from which the individual receives compensation in excess of $50, except for actual and reasonable expenses, in any month as a director, officer, owner, member, partner, employer or employee, or whose securities the individual holds worth $2,500 or more at fair market value.

Compensation from Associated Business(es)

- include payment for services as a director, officer, owner, member, partner, employer, employee. Compensation includes per diem payments.
- do not include payments for services as an independent contractor, social security payments, unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, pension benefits, income from rental property, or insurance benefits.

Securities Held in Associated Business(es)

- include any stock, share, bond, warrant, option, pledge, note, debenture, lease, or commercial paper, in any corporation, partnership, mutual fund, trust, or other association. Securities include stocks in a self-directed IRA and mutual fund shares held in an IRA or deferred compensation plan such as a 457(b) plan.
- do not include deposits in a savings account; certificates of deposit; money market certificates; treasury bills; federal, state, municipal, or other political subdivision bonds or notes; dividends from securities; holdings in a pension or retirement plan; or stocks in an IRA which is not self-directed.

For shares in a mutual fund list the fund provider and fund name but do not itemize the stocks or the assets the mutual fund itself owns. For securities traded on national exchanges, list the name of the security not the exchange symbol.

The value of a security is its fair market value. For securities traded on national exchanges, the fair market value is the closing bid price for the security on a given date. The value of a partial interest in a security is the value of the holder's proportionate share.

Real Property includes land or buildings within the state of Minnesota, other than the filer's homestead, held personally or in partnership in which the filer holds:

- a fee simple interest (own); a mortgage held as seller; a contract for deed as a buyer or seller, or an option to buy, whether direct or indirect, and which interest is valued in excess of $2,500; or
- an option to buy, for property which has a fair market value of $50,000 or more.
- include the county in which the property is located; street address with the city name, OR if there is no street address, list the section, township, and range (lot, block, and addition description can be used in place of section, township, and range); acreage is required only when the section, township, and range description is reported.
- do not include homestead property or the type of property (cabin, condominium, apartments).

Pari-mutuel horse racing

- include any investment, ownership, or interest in property connected with pari-mutuel horse racing in the United States or Canada, including a race horse. Include any direct or indirect, partial or full interest held by you or an immediate family member.

Excerpt from Minneapolis Code of Ordinances
Chapter 15 Ethics in Government
15.120. Loans.

- (a) A local official or employee, or the spouse or domestic partner of the local official or employee, or any entity in which the local official or employee or his or her spouse or domestic partner has a financial interest, shall not apply for, solicit, accept or receive a loan of any amount from any person, organization, or entity that is either doing business with or seeking to do business with the city. However, this section shall not prohibit application for, solicitation for, acceptance of or receipt of a loan from a financial lending institution if the loan is negotiated by unrelated parties, each acting in his or her own self interest and the interest rate charged is at least a market rate.
- (b) This section shall not prohibit a local official or employee, or the spouse or domestic partner of a local official or employee, from applying for, soliciting, accepting, or receiving a loan from an entity such as an employer-sponsored credit union, insurance provider or deferred compensation plan that does business with the city or is seeking to do business with the city.
- (c) This section shall not prohibit an appointed local official or employee, or the spouse or domestic partner of an appointed local official or employee, from applying for, soliciting, accepting, or receiving a loan from the Minneapolis Community Development Agency (MCDA), the Neighborhood Revitalization Program (NRP), or another city-sponsored or city-administered loan program.
