Request records in person in Room 31 of City Hall, or complete an Online Request for Public Data and have information sent to you by e-mail, fax or pick it up at City Hall. There is a fee for all printed materials/reports. Prices and Online Request for Public Data is available at: <http://www.ci.minneapolis.mn.us/police/records/>

311 or <http://www.ci.minneapolis.mn.us/311/>

Service requests are available by calling 311 or going to the website. The forms help people report or request a wide range of things, including:

- Pothole reporting
- Minneapolis City Attorney's Office (Filing criminal charges)
- Traffic sign and signal repair requests
- Graffiti reporting
- Street light repair requests
- Parking meter problems
- Animal control complaints
- Abandoned vehicle complaints

Certain police reports may also be directed to 311. Service requests are sent directly to the relevant City departments. When you submit a request, you are given an estimate of how long it will take to fix and a tracking number so you can follow up.
