This year's event focuses on three BIG themes:

Your City

The Community Connections Conference kicks off Minneapolis 2040, a 20 year plan directing development of the city into the future. Learn how the plan is created and how you can participate in the process.

Your Neighborhood

Neighborhood organization staff, board members and residents will engage in discussions envisioning the future of neighborhood organizations and their role in the community beyond the year 2020.

Your Voice

Learn how to connect with City leaders, how to serve on City boards and commissions and how to engage with Minneapolis' diverse communities.
