

Penn Avenue S. Reconstruction Update June 5th, 2014

Phase II Construction Week of June 2

The Phase 2 limits are from just south of 50th Street W to approximately 100 feet north of 54th Street W.

CenterPoint Energy has completed all service connections between W 50th and W 52nd Streets.

Underground utility work has begun and as part of this work the water department will need to shut down water service along Penn Ave S (from W 50th to W 52nd Streets) between 11:30 pm tonight until 4:30 am tomorrow morning. All impacted properties have been notified by the City of Minneapolis Water Department.

Water service will need to be shut down again, likely next week, along the same stretch to facilitate hydrant work at another location. Notification will again go out to everyone impacted before the work begins.

The Contractor will continue pavement removals up to the north side of Minnehaha Creek.

The Contractor will remove the old gas main and services between W 50th and W 52nd Street beginning this Friday.

Week of June 9, 2014

Following roadway removals the contractor will begin storm sewer upgrades and soil corrections from approximately 100 feet south of W 50th Street to the north side of Minnehaha Creek.

New hydrant installation will occur at W 52 Street.

Rough roadway grading may begin at the end of the week.

Xerxes Avenue Bridge over Mn 62

The Xerxes Bridge over Mn 62 is anticipated to be completed in about a month. For more information on the reconstruction of the Xerxes Avenue Bridge over Mn 62 visit the MnDOT project website at:
